SSi's Nunavut mobile phone customers can now roam on Rogers

Deal connects customers travelling to or from Nunavut

By Jim Bell

SSi Mobile smartphone customers in every Nunavut community are now able to roam on the national wireless network run by Rogers Communications Inc., the two companies announced on Monday, July 22.

At the same time, Rogers customers in the south who visit Nunavut can now use their devices in all of Nunavut's 25 communities.

It's part of a recent agreement between SSi Micro Ltd. and Rogers, and follows SSi's decision last year to offer

SSi Mobile offers wireless smartphone service in all 25 communities. Now, customers in all those communities can use their phones on the Rogers network in the south.
